

Kami, Hotoke, Hito no Michi

When we abide by Kami no Michi (the path of Kami), Hotoke no Michi (the path of our ancestors), and Hito no Michi (the path of life human beings should follow), we are able to live a balanced way of life.

This is especially important because we live our lives connected to other people; and what is especially important is Hotoke no Michi and Hito no Michi.

Kami no Michi (the path of Kami)

Strive to abide by Hito no Michi and Hotoke no Michi as you kigan each day.

Live with reverence and gratitude to Kami.

Hotoke no Michi

(the path of our ancestors)

Remember to have gratitude to your family members, relatives, and others who affect your life such as teachers, your co-workers and superiors and don't give them cause to worry about you.

Have gratitude and fulfill your obligations.

Hito no Michi

(the path of life human beings should follow)

Live in mutual support with the people around you and be aware that we're all in the same boat.

Cultivate the spirit of mutual support.
